

Cristina is bending over a table to organize freshly printed bright pink pages of the "Trans* Feminist Counter Cloud Action FAQ" zine. The cover text of the zine is in red ink, and visible from the two copies that are folded on the table. A flamboyant love letter to trans*feminist life and flourishing beyond the cloud, it draws you in and makes no apologies.

A growing collection of zines, pamphlets and other materials gathered by the Infrastructural Rehearsals Collective.
