

Towards a safer migration system:

Ending the criminalisation of migration & solidarity

Equinox's position on the EU
Facilitator's Package

We're a queer,
feminist, racialised-
led organisation working towards societies of care, not control.

© Equinox Initiative For Racial Justice 2024

<https://www.equinox-eu.com/>

Content

Contents 3

Summary 4

Background: Facilitators Package amongst the punitive turn in EU Migration policy 6

Facilitators Package 6

Facilitation Directive: Recommendations toward a safer migration system 8

The Commission's proposal risks criminalising NGOs and migrants 9

Recommendation 1: Align the definition of 'migrant smuggling' with internationally recognised frameworks 9

Amendment 1 10

Amendment 2 11

Amendment 3 12

Recommendation 2: Decriminalise acts of migration and humanitarian assistance 14

Amendment 4 15

The Commission's proposal targets and punishes migrants and humanitarian actors instead of organised crime 15

Recommendation 3: Remove harsh punitive sentences likely to be applied to migrants, civil society or humanitarian actors 15

Amendment 5 16

Amendment 6 18

Amendment 7 20

Amendment 8 21

The Commission's proposal funds violent and ineffective criminal law responses to migration 24

Recommendation 4: Decrease the remit of punitive police powers and resources 24

Amendment 9 25

Amendment 10 26

Amendment 11 27

Europol Regulation: Recommendations toward a safer migration system 28

1. Unlawful extension of police power 29

2. Data protection considerations and mass surveillance 29

3. Increased resourcing for the punishment approaches to protection issues 31

Conclusion: Reversing the EU's punitive turn in migration 32

Annex of amendments 33